Report on career opportunities for nurses

In one's life, a career holds significant importance. Regardless of the path an individual chooses, it will invariably influence their life. A person's career often determines their societal status and shapes their social interactions and relationships. Similar to other professions, nursing offers numerous opportunities within the field. The demand extends beyond India, reaching international markets as well.

In light of this, SVJCT'S Samarth Nursing College organized a session on career opportunities for nurses abroad on December 30, 2024, in the multipurpose hall between 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM.

The programme with the introduction of the guest speaker, Mr. Rohit S. Mengar, M.Sc. (N), Founder and Nurse Educator at Good Shepherds International Academy, as well as a Registered Nurse at Dubai. The session was highly interactive, with students demonstrating keen interest by asking questions and seeking clarifications. The speaker elaborated on the various career prospects available to nurses in Western and Gulf countries. He also discussed the different examinations nurses must undertake and the timeframes associated with the process, depending on their country of choice. Given that his academy offers preparatory classes, many students eager to explore the possibilities that await them upon completing their studies.
