Two teams participated- one for the motion and one against the motion, each consisting of four members. The competition was held in three structured rounds, allowing participants to present arguments, counter arguments, and final statements.

After an engaging and well- argued debate, the team against the motion emerged as the winner. Best Speaker Awards were also given to one participant from each group. Winners and best speakers were felicitated with gifts and prizes.

The event concluded successfully with appreciation to all participants, judge and organizers for their efforts
