The programme was held on 04/12/2024 at SVJCT's Samarth Nursing College. The venue was well decorated, creating a lively and welcoming ambience for the newcomers.

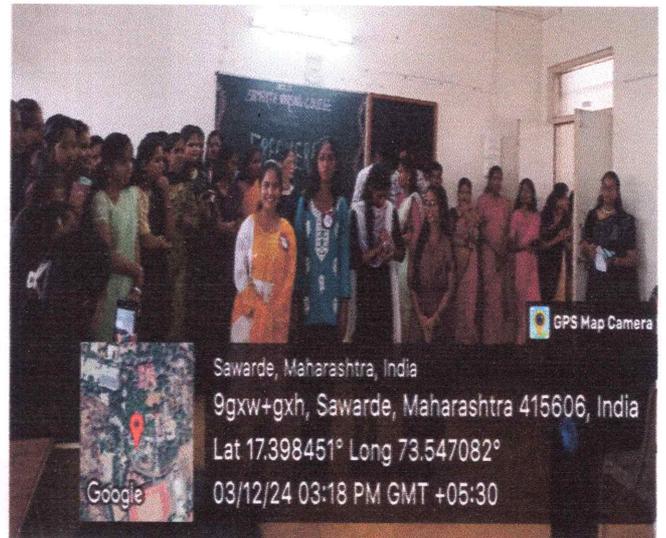

The event began with a warm welcome by the organizers, followed by the lighting of the lamp. Chief Guest Dr. Suvarna Patil (Medical Director) addressed the students and motivated the freshers to work hard, maintain discipline, and actively participate in academic and co-curricular activities.

The programme included a variety of cultural performances such as songs, dances, skits, and games presented by senior students. These performances showcased talent and helped reduce the nervousness of the freshers. Interactive sessions and fun activities encouraged participation and helped students bond with one another.

Senior students shared their experiences and offered valuable advice on managing studies, time, and extracurricular activities. They encouraged freshers to be confident, respectful, and focused on their goals.

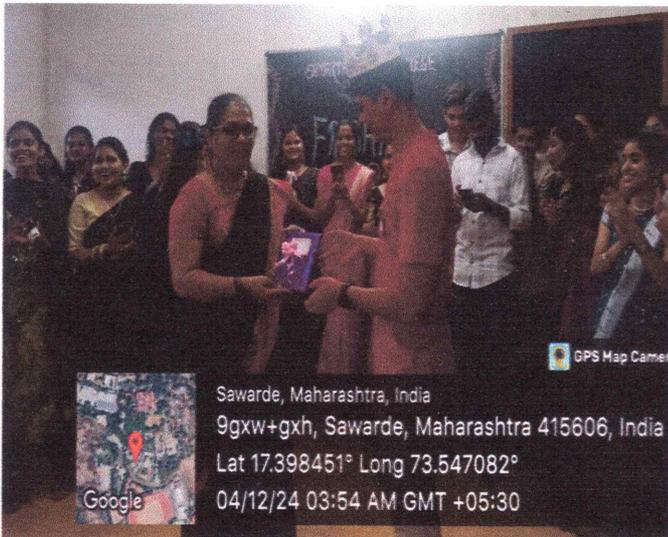

The Freshers' Programme concluded with a vote of thanks and refreshments. The event was a great success and left a lasting impression on the new students. It helped them feel welcomed and motivated to begin their new academic journey with enthusiasm and confidence.
