UK CAMP 2026

SVJCT'S Samarth Nursing College, located in Kasarwadi, Sawarde, in partnership with B.K.L Walawalkar Hospital, had the privilege of hosting the UK Camp.

The British Medical Team arrived in the campus on 26th January 2026 upto 29th January 2026, to impart their expertise and skills to the nursing students and faculty members.

Around 380 nursing students and 43 faculty members were benefited with the lecture sessions conducted by Mr. Iain Thompson, a operating theatre nurse and Ms. Carrie Scuffell, a ward nurse. A variety of sessions were conducted for around 4 days.

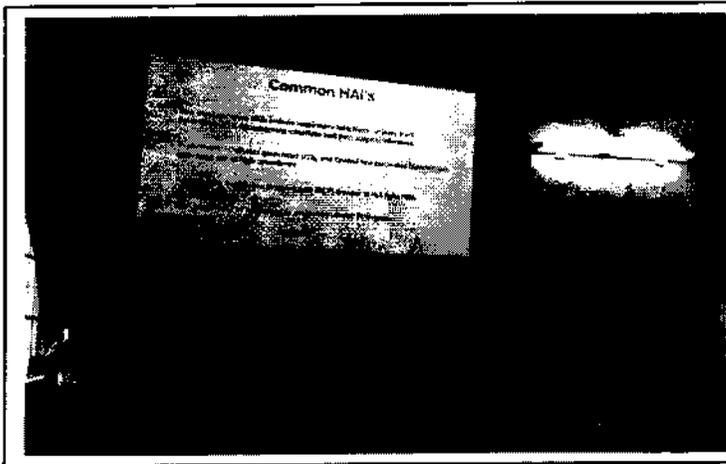

On the first day, Mr. Iain Thompson conducted a session on Pre & postoperative care of the patient followed by the session of Ms. Carrie Scuffell on Hospital acquired infection. On the second day a demonstration on Basic Life Support was conducted by both, where many students got an hands on experience.

Following day, Mr. Thompson, provided insights on organization and physical set up of Operation theatre, and Ms. Carrie showcased the importance of Nursing process and also highlighted nursing standards in UK. In the afternoon, on the same day, Mr. Thompson conducted a session on infection control (root cause analysis) for the faculty members, where many faculty members, learned how to identify the root of any infection and its analysis.

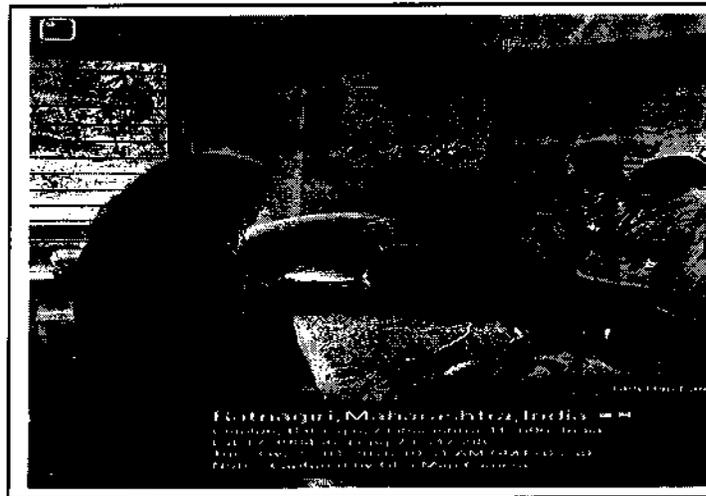

On the last day, Ms. Carrie, conducted session on pain management and stress adaptation. The stress adaptation session motivated the students to deal with their routine stressors and implement a healthy coping mechanism.

All the sessions were conducted in the nursing college and, were highly informative and interactive, with students and faculty members displaying confidence and enthusiasm throughout. Furthermore, Mr. Thompson and Ms. Carrie appreciated students for their active participation in discussions and demonstrations.

Faculty Development Program Report: Scholarly Writing & Research Excellence

Date: January 10, 2026

Time: 9:00 am -5 pm

Objective: To empower faculty members with the foundational skills required for high-impact nursing research, manuscript development, and strategic publication.

The Faculty Development Program (FDP) was conducted to enhance the research capabilities and scholarly writing skills of the faculty members. The sessions were primarily led by Dr. Nancy Fernandis, who provided comprehensive insights into the lifecycle of academic publishing, from manuscript structure to selecting the right indexed journals.

Inaugural Ceremonies: The program was formally inaugurated at 9:00 am by Ms. Jyoti Dhagale Assistant professor SVJCTs SNC. Following the inaugural address, the event transitioned into a traditional lamp lighting ceremony, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge. The morning session concluded its ceremonial phase with a soulful prayer song, setting a focused and academic tone for the day.

Dr. Nancy Fernandis led the first academic module, focusing on the Foundations of Research. She emphasized: The critical role of research in advancing evidence-based nursing practice. The necessity of scholarly writing as a medium for professional growth and healthcare innovation. Mam introduced the core concepts of nursing research and the importance of scholarly writing in the healthcare field.

Manuscript Development & Quality Enhancement

Detailed sessions were held on understanding manuscript structure and techniques for enhancing the overall quality of research papers. A comprehensive program was conducted on the anatomy of a research paper. This session focused on: Structural Integrity: Breaking down the IMRAD (Introduction, Methods, Results, and Discussion) format. Quality Metrics:

Techniques for improving language clarity, data visualization, and logical flow to meet international standards.

Publication Strategy & Selection

Faculty members were guided on how to select suitable journals and implemented strategies to improve their chances of publication success. Faculty members participated in an interactive session regarding strategic placement of their work. Key takeaways included: Identifying "Best Fit" journals based on scope and audience. Tactics to mitigate rejection rates, such as pre-submission peer reviews and adherence to author guidelines.

The Impact of Indexing: Scopus and PubMed

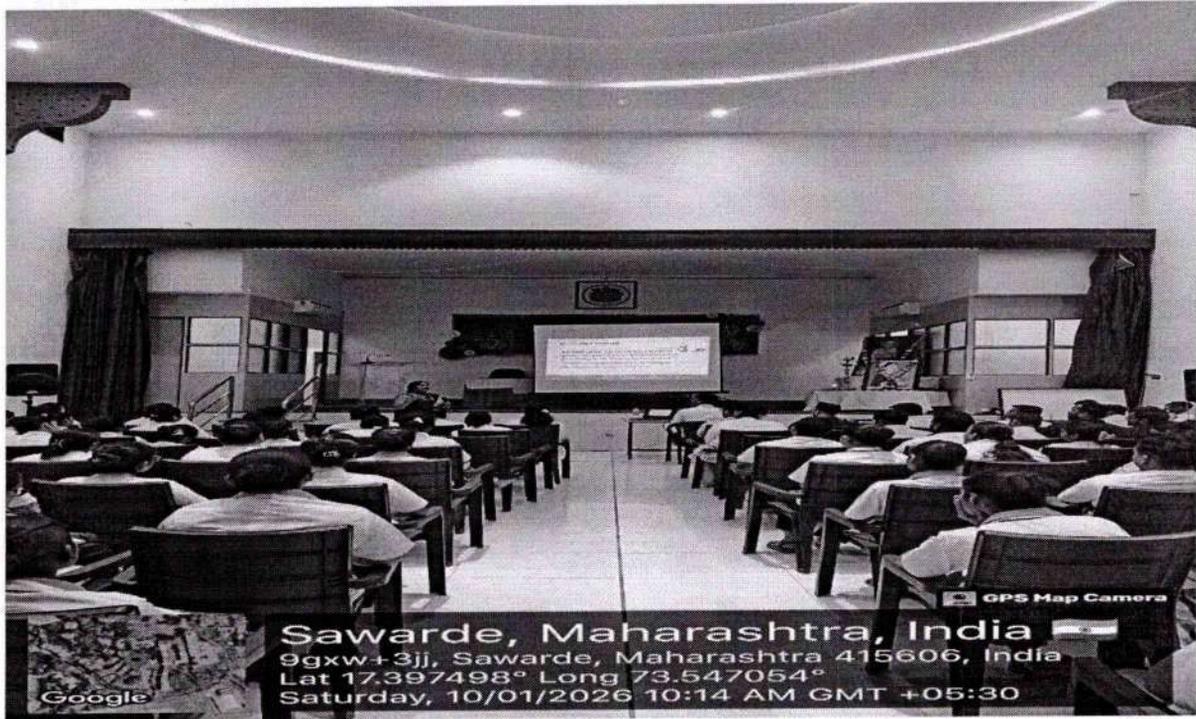

The final technical session highlighted the professional and institutional benefits of publishing specifically in Scopus and PubMed indexed journals. The final technical session underscored why indexing matters. The discussion highlighted: How Scopus and PubMed increase the global reach of a researcher's work. Institutional Credibility: The role of high-impact publications in university rankings and professional accreditation.

Report of the Faculty Development Program On 'Stress Management at Workplace'

SVJCT's Samarth Nursing College organized a Faculty Development Program on Stress Management at the Workplace on 30th July 2025. The event featured esteemed speakers Ms. Rupali Chavan and Ms. Swati Sonawane. The program commenced with a symbolic lamp lighting ceremony. Prof. Tejal Surve, Principal of SVJCT's Samarth Nursing College, felicitated the speakers.

Effective workplace stress management involves both individual strategies and organizational support. Faculty can benefit from time management techniques, relaxation exercises, and prioritizing self-care. Faculty can foster a supportive environment by promoting work-life balance, providing employee assistance programs, and addressing workplace stressors like workload and communication issues.

Ms. Jyoti Dhagale skilfully anchored the event, ensuring a smooth flow of proceedings. Ms. Rupali Chavan and Ms. Swati Sonawane delivered insightful sessions on stress management strategies and techniques. Ms. Dipali Chavan expressed gratitude to the speakers, organizers, and participants.

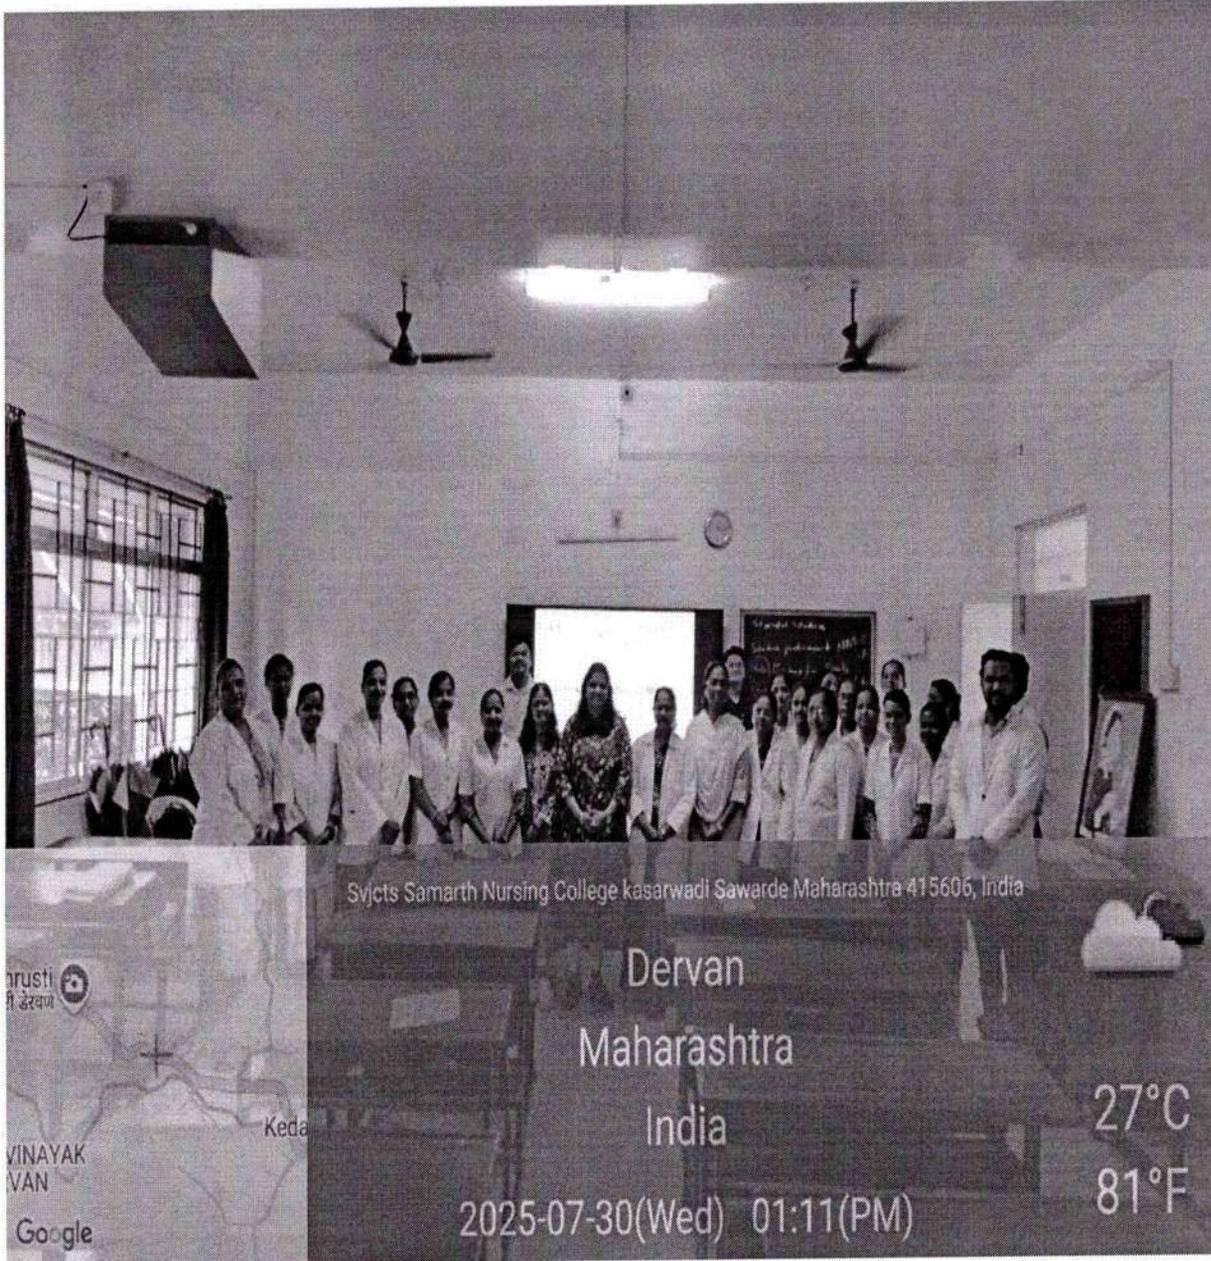

At the end of the program, the feedback was collected from the participants. This Faculty Development program provided a valuable platform for knowledge sharing and skill development, equipping participants with effective stress management techniques.

Program Evaluation:

Analysis of the Program evaluation questionnaire to obtain feedback on the effectiveness of the Workshop as follows:

Table No 1: Overall Workshop Evaluation Feedback

S. N	Questions	Yes	No	Not sure
1	Were the objectives of the workshop largely achieved?	44 [100%]
2	Do you find workshop useful for your professional activities?	44 [100%]
3	Were the faculty resourceful/helpful?	44 [100%]
4	Do you think you will be able to implement what you have learnt during the workshop?	44 [100%]
5	Did the workshop have a balance of theory and practical?	Too much of theory 11[25%]	Too much of practice [0%]	Optimum theory & practice 33[75%]
6	Was the time management satisfactory?	Program was too tight 10[22.72%]	Program was too relaxed [0%]	Program was optimum 34 [77%]

Note: [Figures in brackets are in Percentage]

In 3 days Basic Research Methodology Workshop feedback taken for overall program from above figure it is clear that all the participants are agreed that the objectives of the workshop are largely achieved. This workshop is useful for professional activities and all the faculties were resourceful and helpful. 75% said that workshop included Optimum theory & practice and also 77% of participants agreed that program time table was optimum.
