Report On Continuing Professional Development (CPD/CNE) Programme

SVJCTs Samarth Nursing College, Kasarwadi, organized a Continuing Professional Development (CPD/CNE) Programme for Nurses on 27th February, marking an important initiative towards enhancing professional knowledge and skills in the healthcare sector. In today's rapidly evolving healthcare environment, continuous learning has become essential to keep pace with new technologies, treatment modalities, and advancements in patient care. Continuous education in nursing is not merely an academic activity but a vital component of professional growth, quality improvement, and the delivery of safe and effective patient care. Through such programmes, nurses gain updated knowledge, acquire new competencies, and become better equipped to meet the changing demands of modern healthcare services.
