Report On International Women's Day

Every year on March 8, International Women's Day is celebrated across the world to honor women's achievements, create awareness about women's rights, and promote gender equality. In 2026 as well, this special day was celebrated with great enthusiasm, emphasizing the increasing contribution of women in every field of society. According to this year's theme, it has been highlighted that providing women with empowerment, equal opportunities, and a safe environment is the need of the hour. Women's remarkable achievements in various fields such as education, healthcare, industry, science, and administration continue to inspire society.

The all-round development of women is a collective responsibility of families, society, and the government. With the message of "Moving Towards Equality," International Women's Day was celebrated enthusiastically. Similarly, Samarth Nursing College and B.K.L. Walawalkar Hospital, Kasarwadi, jointly organized a three-day program filled with various activities on the occasion of International Women's Day. The program was conducted from March 7 to March 9, 2026, and received enthusiastic participation from students, professors, nursing staff, doctors, and other healthcare workers.

On March 7, 2026, the staff nurses of B. K. L. Walawalkar Hospital organized various food stalls. These included Solkadhi, buttermilk, lemon juice, makhana bhel, cucumber dishes, pani puri, and other healthy refreshments. The food stalls allowed attendees to enjoy nutritious and delicious food items.

On March 8, 2026, various cultural programs were organized to celebrate Women's Day. The nursing staff, community department, and doctors presented mono acts, a skit on the topic "Women's Life," and attractive cultural dance performances. Dr. Suvarna Patil Madam graced the event as the chief guest, and her presence added great inspiration to the program. The event began with the traditional lamp-lighting ceremony, followed by excellent dance performances by all participants.

On March 9, 2026, Samarth Nursing College organized a poster competition for students, in which a total of 15 students participated. The program started with the traditional lamp-lighting ceremony. Students then delivered impactful speeches and recited poems conveying the message of women empowerment. Prof. Vaishali Dalvi delivered a motivational speech and guided the students. Later, the top three winners of the poster competition were honored with prizes. The three-day celebration concluded with a vote of thanks. Through these activities, the message of women empowerment was effectively conveyed to society.
